

CZAR TO QUIT

Abdication of the Russian Ruler Reported in London.

Melancholia the Cause of the Resignation—Creates Much Political Interest.

PARIS, France, Aug. 5.—A report of the impending abdication of the czar is printed in the London Times today and is the subject of much comment, especially with regard to how such an act would affect the Franco-Russian relations. The story is not given much credence, but many comment on the fact that the czar is suffering from melancholia over the fact he had no heir and also over the disappointing results of the peace conference. Many believe there is a critical situation at St. Petersburg.

WILL DO THE WORK.

Col. Hays Predicts Aguinaldo's Defeat by American Cavalry.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 5.—Col. Jack Hays, of Indian fighting fame, one of the most noted men in the United States army, said today: "I think when the cavalry goes after Aguinaldo the outfit of rebels won't last long. The government ought to have had more mounted troops there from the start." Hays left today for Manila, where he will take the cavalry command.

THE USUAL RESULT.

Trial of the Feudists at Harboursville Creates Bad Feeling.

HARBORVILLE, Ky., Aug. 5.—The Baker-Howard feud trial is stirring up old enmity and strife among the feudists. They may not wait till the trial is over to renew their bloody warfare. Edna and John Baker, relatives of John Howard, who is now on trial, testified today that James killed William Howard and fired shots.

FALSE, OF COURSE

Olympia Himself Would Have Resented the Indignity

Yellow Story of an Austrian Correspondent Which Won't Go Down on This Side.

PARIS, France, Aug. 5.—The Vienna correspondent of the Lince Paroic declared that Admiral Dewey was expected to visit Austria because of the alleged interview in which he was quoted as saying "our next war will be with Germany." The Austrian government requested the admiral to contradict this, says the correspondent, but he refused to do so, whereupon he was given twenty-four hours in which to quit the country.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 5.—Officials here do not believe that Admiral Dewey's visit at Trieste was disagreeable. If he found himself unwelcome he never confided in the navy department, and if Austria showed him any hospitality after the alleged interview predicting war with Germany, the admiral confided in no one regarding it. The state department certainly heard nothing of it from the American minister and therefore no evidence is given to the story. The naval officials further declare that the Olympia stayed at Trieste for precisely the period required to procure a clean bill of health, and that she went there for nothing else.

TOBACCO STEALING.

Large Quantities Said to Be Stolen Daily and Sold.

It is stated on good authority that a large amount of tobacco is daily stolen from the various warehouses here by an organized gang of tobacco thieves. Loose leaf is taken, and hundreds of pounds a day are stolen, according to reports. Negroes and a few white men are said to be members of the gang, and the tobacco is always taken from the factories where it is kept in large quantities. In order that it may not be traced.

The first known of the wholesale stealing was recently, through some Illinois farmers, who raise very little tobacco, and depend on Paducah for their supply. Most of the stolen tobacco is taken across the river and sold to farmers, to shanty houses up and down the river, while some of it is shipped off in the city to jobbers or retailers.

The warehousemen should take steps to track up the custom of stealing and keep a lookout for the thieves.

THE WORTEN ADDITION.

100 Town Lots Have Been Mapped Out and Made Into a Suburb.

Mr. J. M. Worten, the lawyer, has just completed the plat for a new addition to Paducah, to be called the "Worten addition." It comprises 100 town lots near the old Baumer place, and one of the streets is named "Smithland avenue" and the other Worten street. It is expected to build up that part of town at once and make it one of the most thriving suburbs.

DEATH OF FRED CLUMFOOT.

Fred Clumfoot, a man who was shot in the leg on a shanty boat several weeks ago, was brought here and taken to the county poor farm, died last night after suffering weeks of agony.

Soon after he came here his limb was amputated, and never healed, because of improper nourishment, it is claimed. Recently another operation was performed with a hope of relieving him. Little if anything is known of him, and the remains will be buried at the expense of the county today.

ODAY IN BRIEF.

THE NEWS DEAL

New Association Takes Charge Monday—Organization Then.

Leader to Be Made Into a Daily Paper for the Support of Goebel.

The new association that has bought out the Evening News will assume charge Monday morning, and in a clock will organize and the transfer of papers take place. Tomorrow and Monday the new organization, as is stated, "will be in the city to take control."

It is probable that there will be a change in the force and it is given out that there will be some decided improvements in the paper, especially in regard to news facilities.

There are eight people in the new association, it is understood. The paper will be against the Goebelticket.

Mr. Ed Leigh, who has been with the News for some months, retires with the change of management, it is understood that he has already made arrangements to go into business for himself at some southwestern Kentucky point. Mr. Tandy will remain with the News for a time, it is also reported.

Mr. J. S. Colth, of Louisville, is not coming here to go to work on the News, but to visit his mother. He has a fine place now and has no desire to make a change.

It is also probable that the leader, now issued as a Sunday paper, will in a few days be issued as a daily. It will be a democratic paper and will support Goebel. This is a recent inside understanding.

NOT ENTHUSIASTIC

Only About Forty Democrats Were Out at the Meeting.

Although the petition asking that a democratic club be organized last night was signed by 425 Democrats, there were but 40 there last night when the time arrived for calling the meeting together at the city hall.

It was known as a move of the time faction, and the result must have been anything but encouraging. Mr. John W. Baker was chosen chairman of the convention, Mr. T. L. Price secretary and Mayor James M. Lang treasurer. The latter was not present.

Another effort will be made to organize a permanent club at some date in the near future. One inducement offered is that all members will be taken to Mayfield free on a special train when the Louisville and Southern have their tag taken out there on the 12th.

NEWS NOTES

The Liverpool trial is all ready to begin Monday.

Richard Croker, the Tammany chief, is to sail from England home in a few days.

Miss Fannie Goodwin, of Christian county, who shot Byron Alligree for insulting her, was dismissed without prosecution by the court. Alligree has skipped the county, not caring to face an exposure of his conduct toward Miss Goodwin.

Robert Bird, a noted agent who served with Buffalo Bill and Texas Jack, died in Cuba, where he was serving with the American troops.

The Yaqui Indian insurrection in Mexico is spreading. A whole family has been carried away by the Indians, and further murders are reported.

Grand jurors report a great increase for July in the bank clearings over the country. Only two cities show a decrease.

The street railway and electric system at Richmond, Va., has changed hands.

Eight Mormon churches have been destroyed by mobs in Kentucky within a year, and a demand is to be made upon Governor Bradley for protection.

A Pennsylvania man killed his three small children and then committed suicide.

Mrs. W. K. Goodwell, wife of the steward at the Lexington asylum, was attacked by a lunatic and badly beaten.

"Meet me at the Arcade."

Will certainly run.

The excursion advertised to leave for Old Point, Aug. 9th, will run without fail, going via Richmond and Petersburg thence to Norfolk and Virginia Beach. All passengers who desire to visit New York and other cities, can take a steamer at Norfolk.

There is absolutely no danger in this route and it is equally as delightful. Make your arrangements in go.

J. W. YOUNG DEAD

He Passes Away After a Week's Illness.

Was 65 Years Old—Leaves Two Children—Funeral Arrangements.

Mr. J. W. Young, aged 65, father of the well known laundryman, died this morning at 8 o'clock at his home at Tenth and Madison streets, of bowel complaint, after a week's illness. The deceased was born in Tennessee and came to Paducah 13 years ago. His wife died a few months ago.

Mr. Young was a respected Christian gentleman, and leaves a wife and two children to mourn his demise. His children are two in number, Mr. Will Young, proprietor of the Star laundry, and Miss Jennie Young.

The funeral will take place at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, burial at Oak Grove. Services at the Trinity street M. E. Church.

NEW CARRIER.

Trouble of Paducah is a Lack of Sidewalk in Places.

Postmaster Fisher, in his efforts to procure more carriers for Paducah, has ascertained that one of the most serious drawbacks is the absence of pavements in portions of the city where free delivery is so greatly needed, as in Rowlandtown. The postoffice will establish free delivery in no portion of a city where there are no pavements.

It is thought probable that an other carrier may sometime be added to the local force.

POLICE COURT

Dead Rats Cause Trouble—Also Democratic Politics.

Concealed Weapons Found on John Porter, Colored, Last Night.

Judge Sanders said this morning that hereafter persons throwing dead rats in the streets or gutters, anywhere else where they may contaminate the atmosphere, will be prosecuted and fined.

John Theodore, a German, was charged with having killed Bird Brown, the fisherman, to kill nine rats and throw them in the street.

He said he had the rats in a trap and intended to carry them to the river and drown them when a brown came along and took the trap away and let the dogs kill them in the street. "do make some fun a leddie."

The charge was dismissed and Brown was ordered to take the nine rodents to the river and throw them in. He promised he would do it.

Jim Douglas and J. W. Turpin, two Democrats, were charged with engaging in a fight. Turpin, it seems, said he was for John Young Brown and some of the others began abusing him, saying he was no man. He left the saloon and Douglas followed him. They then had a few rounds, as a result of which Douglas's eye was in mounting this morning.

Turpin was fined $3 and costs and Douglas $1 and costs.

John Hale and Will Blank, colored, were charged with gaming. They were caught at the Union hotel yesterday afternoon, and Hale got away from officer Ingram. The cases were continued until Monday.

John Porter, colored, was charged with carrying a deadly weapon, but said he was not guilty. As the witnesses were not present the case was continued.

SUNDAY BASEBALL.

The L. A. L's and the Metropolis base ball teams will play at the park grounds Sunday afternoon. The game will be called at 2 o'clock sharp. Admission will be free. Immediately after the ball game there will be a matinee in the park theater of the beautiful comedy drama, "Ghosts and Shadows."

QUARTERLY COURT.

Quarterly court convenes Monday morning at nine o'clock court room at the county court house, Judge Tully presiding. There is not a great deal of business to come before it.

The committee having nothing unduly to market pleasant for all who may celebrate at Eureka Park. 542

OUR STATE TICKET.

GOVERNOR, W. S. TAYLOR, Of Butler County.
LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR, JOHN MARSHALL, Of Jefferson County.
SECRETARY OF STATE, CALVIN POWERS, Of Knox County.
ATTORNEY GENERAL, CLIFFORD J. PRATT, Of Hopkins County.
AUDITOR, JOHN S. SWEENEY, Of Bourbon County.
TREASURER, WALTER R. DAY, Of Breathitt County.
COMMISSIONER OF AGRICULTURE, J. W. THORNTON, Of Fayette County.
SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION, JOHN BURKE, Of Campbell County.

SATURDAY, AUGUST 5, 1899.

The Republican state central committee has established its headquarters at the Galt house, Louisville. Nice rooms have been secured.

There will be a number of Democratic speeches made in various sections of the state Monday. The speakers will be the following: Mr. J. H. Taylor, of the party hopes to have to discontinue and not the men behind the ballots. The latter will be at home at ending to their individual interests and doing some very effective thinking.

It is useless to assail the convincing speech of John Young Brown at Lexington. It stands for itself.

Our esteemed contemporary, the News, is getting in some ambitious efforts for Goodell before the "trip."

It makes no difference whether Mr. Wm. Goodell is an agent, a gold bug or whatnot, he is not the choice of his party and is least. The disaffection rampant since the nomination of the man from Kenton, who went into the convention with less than a third of the votes and came out with a majority, is adequate proof that he is not the choice of his party. The bold and determined move to put on another ticket by a sold and honest Democrat as there are in the party bespeaks an old and honest Democrat as the Goodell men, in the bitterness of impending defeat, may shout "traitor, renegade" or other such terms at them if they will, but it cuts no ice. The venom of their resentment comes from the clutching conviction of inevitable and ignominious defeat. Nothing can save them.

If the Goodellites sweat and fume through the balance of the canvass as they have for the past few weeks there will not be enough of them left to interest the Brownites and the Republican will have a walk over for a fact. The Goodellites are dying hard indeed.

The Owensboro Messenger has the News a hard kick about the report of sale of the paper to the Brown fact.

The News bolts very slowly, if it is to bolt at all. But Monday is the day now set for the change of proprietors, and then may come the editorial change also.

Some of Brown's vilest abusers have in the past asked him for great favors, and may have the same thing to do over. There is such a thing as history repeating itself, you know.

It looks strange that Young Brown, who have known John Young Brown intimately for years, who have regarded him as a man of honor and integrity, and an exponent of true democracy, should so suddenly find that they were all those years laboring under a delusion—because he now dares to do right and they don't.

A vote for Brown is a vote for Taylor.—News. Yes, but it's not a vote for Goodell.

One of the principal objections some people have to the "money campaign" is that they haven't the use of one of his trunks.

The Evening News says that those who went into the conventions were pledged to support the nominee. The News failed to mention the fact that the nominee got his votes by the betrayal of the trait repudiated in the delegates by the people. Seven of McKracken's delegates voted for Mr. Goodell against Mr. Austin. They knew Mr. Goodell was not preferred by the Democrats over Mr. Austin. They are not pledged to support a nomination thus fraudulently secured.

It now seems the dawn of the day when the voice of reason, or the conscience, is to be heard, and heeded, by the public in public affairs. When the crack of the party lash awakes no one, more than the sleep of the mosquito or the lameness of the fly. When the whole population can no longer be embraced in the two classes of office-holders and office-seekers. When the nominee, has small claims, if based wholly upon that fact. This being the case a better is called to all the consideration any politician is truly and honestly as the other politicians, and if ever there existed a just man for rivals in ones own party the Goodell machine in its Louisville machinations furnished it. The Lexington convention like the conference, will be a honest a free expression of those-out there for it can be safely predicted the police will not detain the delegates or the chairman at that most link.

The Democrats are not satisfied with the varied assortment of faces they have represented in their party. They are now trying to bring an argument.

Mr. Goodell may be a "gold bug," but he can't slide into the governor's chair.

If the members of the present city small who run for re-election do not run on their records, what do they expect to run on? If they do run on their records, what do they expect to get?

The Democratic papers which are saying so much about the outwray existing in the mountains show little range of the facts when they say conditions are worse now than they have ever been. The facts are to the contrary and though the conditions are a disgrace to the state they are better than ever the case under Democratic rule. How to the facts, we find failures, and let the chips fall where they will.

If Gen. Taylor had no other commendation than that of having brought suit and suppressed the "Goodell agent" stand, the gratitude of the people ought to elect him. A case of such flagrant stealing, and so long permitted, ought to have been suppressed by force if not by law before it was, but the Democrats wanted it continued, and the Republic stopped it the first moment the formal steps of a law suit could reach it.

The time was, and not long ago, that party machinery was to corrupt and unpopular in the city of Louisville that a Democratic nomination was a guarantee of defeat. Does the most famous machine that the best party machinery was ever corrupt to the extent that was reached by the fact and fraudulent scheme worked there June 21-22? Or does he imagine that the point of holding and contemptible impopularity, was even commended by a mere local piece of villainy? Does any one believe that the rural communities are more obtuse than the cities? If so he is destined to a surprise when the vote is counted in November. The counting machine of the Democratic party, since the rusting from the deluge they are to be voted of. A few hundreds, a few thousands, it may be, of shortage might have been or may be supplied by that deluge, but the widening thousands that will fall on and crash them in the lives of November, will destroy even to the last of the Goodell machine.

The Cincinnati Commercial Tribune, in considering the Lexington Independent Democratic convention, pertinently says: "The movement that took definite form at Lexington is fraught with deepest meaning and is prophetic of an era of revolution within the ranks of the Kentucky Democracy, the end of which will be reorganization and reform. In that it congratulates the Democratic party of the state. But, meantime, it congratulates the state at large that, pending the purification process, it will be found necessary to continue the state government in Republican hands for safe keeping, and that the trust will be so ably and honestly administered as to recommend its permanency." This is the picture well painted. How do you like it?

NEW CONVENTION.
There is a regular call out for the independent Democratic convention to be held in Lexington on the 16th. Under it the Democrats of Kentucky are urged to assemble at their respective county seats in mass convention on Saturday, August 12, 1899, at 1 o'clock p. m. or at such other time or place prior to August 16, 1899, as will be most convenient, and appoint delegates, as directed by the Lexington meeting, to attend the general convention in Lexington, Ky., August 16, 1899.

When Paul Demanded a Doll.
Although Adeline Pitt has recently installed a new head at her castle at Craig-Nos, it is doubtful if Baron Cederstrom will be other than a figure head. When, in her young days, the famous singer was touring America, the impresario who was managing the Adeline as an "infant prodigy" found it necessary to give her a valuable little toy each time she appeared. One evening, in Cincinnati, he forgot the usual gift. "Very well," said Paul, "then I don't sing!" "But the house is filled and the audience is waiting," said the distracted manager. Entreaties proved vain; the little singer refused to go on the stage. After a vast amount of trouble the manager purchased a toy and tossed it at the feet of the songstress, who at once tripped on the stage and began to sing as only Paul can sing.

Some Women Doubt.
Many women think the bearing of children is a necessary period of great pain and distress. They doubt whether any medicine can relieve their sufferings. Well may they hesitate about taking those injurious internal mixtures so widely sold. But they may place implicit faith in the medicine which is a softening, relaxing and soothing liniment for external use. Doubling women should get a bottle of the drug store for $1, and test it. There is no possibility of its doing harm, and there is every likelihood of its saving them many hours of pain. THE BRADFIELD REGULATOR CO., ATLANTA, GA.

In Society.

Social circles continue dull all through the past week was a little livelier than the preceding one. The dance at the park Thursday evening, several hundred theater parties at the park and one or two other small affairs were the only events on the social calendar.

The only thing in prospect for next week is the events Tuesday and every one will undoubtedly turn out for this.

This is the season of picnic and amusements and every evening a party or two, with baskets and good things, can be seen being away to the park or the woods here to while away a few hours pleasantly.

The dance given by the members of the younger set at the park Thursday evening was a very pleasant affair notwithstanding the extremely warm weather. One thoroughly enjoyable feature of the dance was the splendid music furnished by a German band from St. Louis. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Thompson, Henry Burnett, A. J. Becker, J. A. Rudy, Louis Riecke, Messrs. W. E. Menary, T. G. Leach, Geo. Fournoy, Art. Hensch, of Evansville and Marie Rankin, Misses Marie Clark, Flora Owen, Jane Rivers, Marie Noh, Renée Corlett, Reuben Alford, May Corbett, Marie and Elizabeth Bell, George Hays, Ruth Ward, Emma Reed, Sophie Hummel, May, Minnie and Hattie Terrell, Kate and Ed Sanders, Elizabeth Smith, Corrie Saffrans, of Memphis, Cross of Memphis, Whitmore, of Mayfield, Leonard, of Edinville, Hall, of McLeansboro, Messrs. Walter Johnson, Cecil Lacy, Frank Riecke, James and Percy Paxton, Harrie Rankin, Gus Humphreys, Eddie Woodfolk, Jr., Gus Thompson, Willie Minick, Frank Periman, Henry Rudy, Roy Culey, Stanley Fisher, Bob Noble, Hebert Hawkins, Wallace Weil, Tom Corbett, J. P. Smith, Dr. Howard, Henry Weasinger, Lew Wilcox, Nick Long, Edna Wilcox.

Mrs. Millie Davis entertained a few friends, at the home of her father, Capt. J. H. Fowler, Monday evening complimentary to Miss Helen Hall, of McLeansboro, who is the present guest of Mrs. Wm. Hing.

Mrs. Jessie Patterson entertained a few friends at luncheon at the park Tuesday evening.

A jolly party of young folks was the guest of Mrs. L. D. Wilcox at a most enjoyable party at the park Friday evening.

Mr. Edwin Thompson returned Thursday from a sojourn at Dawson.

Mrs. W. E. Motley left Friday afternoon for Owensboro Springs.

Mrs. R. E. Ashbrook left Friday for Dixon Springs.

Mrs. Mary Chandler returned this week from a visit to friends in several Eastern Kentucky towns.

Mr. Joe Elliot left Wednesday for a visit to friends in Owensboro and Hopkinsville.

Miss Sallie Leonard, of Edinville, is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. Whelan Campbell, on Seventh street.

Miss Edna Hamilton, of Nashville, who has been visiting Miss Ode Puryear, left today to visit friends in Vine Grove, Ky.

Miss May Roberts returned to her home Friday, after a visit to Miss Ode Puryear.

A good number of Paducah people leave next week on the trip to Niagara Falls. They go to Evansville and join an excursion from that city.

The Old Point Comfort trip will also take on a good number of Paducah people next week.

Mr. Edwin Wilcox leaves next week for Niagara and will go down there to Canada for a short stay.

The members of the Jewish circle gave a delightful dance at the park Friday evening, composed primarily to Misses Jeanette Mack, of Louisville, and Marie Brunson, of Columbus, Ind., two charming young ladies who are the guests of Miss Mack, on West Broadway.

Our buyer has just returned from market with a beautiful and carefully selected line of new sailers, and some of them are beauties, but we find we have too many, so we will give our customers the benefit and sell them at one-half the usual selling price. We must have money, so we have decided to close out our stock of trimmed hats and bonnets at ruinously low figures.
All our $6.00 patterns go now at $3.00. All our $5.00 ones at $2.50. All our $3.00 hats at $1.50. They consist of trimmed leghorns, short back sailors, chiffon hats and hats of every shape and style. They must go now regardless of price, to call and see the extreme low figures we have placed on everything pertaining to head gear. All our chiffons, ribbons and flowers are reasonable, mid-summer trimming and four prices cannot be duplicated elsewhere.

LOCAL LINES.

The Great Wallace Shows offer a challenge of $10,000 to produce the equal of the Nelson Family of acrobats, and the Paducah Chronicle asserts that this will never be taken, as the world don't contain another such family.

The Job department of The Sun Publishing Company has just added more new material than constitutes the entire plant of some competitors.
It is a proper selection, too—the latest and most desirable production of the four most American countries. We can please the most exacting customer on any class of letter press printing and the prices will be honest.

The funeral of the late Mr. W. H.
McGee took place last night at the family residence on Trumble street at 7:30 o'clock, attended by the Golden Cross Knights and the Odd Fellows.
The remains were taken to Louisville for interment.

Persons smoking out mosquitoes on Broadway between Third and Fourth streets caused the fire department to be called out about 1 o'clock this morning. It was at first thought that Palmer's dry goods store was on fire.

Mr. Thomas Leach entertained at cards last night at the Palmer, in honor of Mrs. Isaac Hall, of McLennan-boro, Ill., the charming guest of Mrs.
William Hughes, of Court street.

The fact that the Great Wallace Shows are composed exclusively of the greatest artists known, and that their properties is the best ever built for show purposes, ranks at the highest class circus in the world.

The remains of Louis Wright, colored, who died at 1309 South Tenth street from congestion night before last, were this afternoon shipped to Paris, Tenn., for burial. He formerly resided here.

Mrs. Mattie Albertson, aged 38, died last night at 1309 South Tenth street. She had been ill for some time.
The burial took place today.

The following amounts were this morning paid out on orders from the county clerk, for work on the county roads: J. W. Eaker, $283.14; J. W.
Houser, $420.15; W. R. Hocker, $212.20 and W. A. Hunsaway, $98.25.

Mrs. Eliza Grapes, colored, of the Maxon's Mills neighborhood, died yesterday morning at the age of 65 years.
She owned considerable property in that locality and was well thought of by all. Her remains were shipped today by Undertaker Watkins to Clarksville, Tenn.

Salie Howard died last night and the remains were interred today.

George Mathis, who was injured in the land car wreck day before yesterday, was able to return to his home in Iowa this afternoon.

Dan Gardner, who was mangled between two cars in the I. C. yards several days ago, has been discharged from the railroad hospital and is able to go to work again.

Champion's Orchestra, of St.
Louis, will furnish the music for the Pythian excursion Monday night.

Concert by Champion's band. Three hours for dancing. All for 25 cents.

Paducah has a new paper, the first issue of which appeared today.
It is a weekly and C. W. Merriweather, colored, is the publisher and editor.

It has been cloudy nearly all day and quite close. The indications this afternoon are for falling weather by night.

What promises to be a hard rain storm was all but on the city at 3:30 o'clock.

THE WALLACE SHOWS.

This big circus institution is making a splendid record this season, receiving nothing but words of praise from the press of every city visited.
The following is taken from a lengthy article which recently appeared in the Mt. Carmel, Pa., Star:

Space alone will not permit our giving credit that is justly due to the great Wallace circus, which showed here yesterday. For good, honest, conscientious work they deserve a lot of good things being said of them.
The man that advertises his wares and then gives even better than his contracts for, is a philanthropist, and his name is "few" and Mr. Wallace can be classed among these few.

Why go into a lengthy dissertation on the individual features of the show?
Their own press notices deal in that kind of goods and we know now that they are of a quality just a shade superior to what it is claimed for them.
If mention must be made, the first to demand recognition would be the Nelson family. Their act is one whole show in itself, and storms of applause greet their work. They stand unparalleled. A close second is found in the Sticks. In their bicycle "tunn."
Their control of the silent steel must be seen to be appreciated.

The Wallace shows come to Paducah on the 8th.

The City of Paducah passed out of Tennessee last night with a big trip for St. Louis.

Captain Billy Shaw, pilot, took the load up the Cumberland to Ashland city, near Nashville, where she loaded with tea. Her barges were loaded to 5 1-2 feet. The river fell so rapidly that the boat and barges were compelled to remain there until there is a better stage of water. Captain Shaw arrived home last evening via rail from Nashville.

The steamer Tennessee will leave for Tennessee river this afternoon at 5 o'clock. She has a good trip.

The Luck Fowler pulled out this morning with fair business for Cairo.

Captain Frank Ellison, superintendent of the Cincinnati & Pittsburgh line of of steamers, arrived on the Illinois Central last night from Cincinnati.

Captain Ellison's mother, who resides in St. Louis, is here visiting her mother, but will go to Cincinnati with her son and visit his family there leaving her in the morning.

The snagboat E. A. Woodruff is raising snags, sunken flats, and wrecks of old steamboat hulls over at the island.

The Rob Bailey left Nashville today
at noon and will arrive tomorrow night leaving next Monday at 10 a. m.
for Clarksville.

Weather cloudy, hot and sultry;
southwest wind.

The H. W. Rutledge arrived from Evansville at 10:30 today and departed at noon. She had paying business in and out.

Mr. Saunders Fowler was out again today on his crutches, making a good effort for his signature.

The fight with the Louisville & Cincinnati Packers and City of Pittsburgh will not last thirty days, so says one of the best informed men of the business of Cincinnati. He says the City of Pittsburgh is sure to come out second in the race as the other line is too much for her.

River falling here, and business very good with the packets.

Work on the aqueduct, which is on the ways, is being pushed forward very fast.

Mr. James French is out again after a few days' illness.

Captain Eph Halloway returned yesterday from Haden, Baden Springs, Germany. He says he didn't see a single man here or a single thing in the ocean, going and coming, and that a pilot's berth on an ocean steamer is a soft thing.

Major Ashcraft returned home yesterday on the steamer Tennessee from the National Cemetery at St. Louis.

Win. Love & Sons, steamboat blacksmith and sheet iron shop, are working a good force of help.

REMARKS.

Our market opened up a little easier this week, but it soon regained its strength and remained active and strong throughout. The general run of quality was not quite so good and there was no extra good tobacco. Weather hot and dry all week.

Stock on the last 3,766 hogs heads.

Freight rates per 100 pounds—to New York, all rail, 42 cents; to New York, water and rail, 49 cents.
To New Orleans, all rail, 49 cents.
